

Please Join Us...

Contemporary Challenges in Grief Work: Gender Issues and Disenfranchised Grief

A special workshop for caregiving professionals presented by Dr. Kenneth J. Doka

Wednesday, September 14, 2011
9:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.
Hilton Garden Inn

19677 E. Jackson Dr., Independence, MO 64057
(I-70 and Little Blue Parkway)
$20.00 registration fee includes lunch & refreshments
CEUs available

Contact David Speaks at david.speaks@speakschapel.com to register

Who Should Attend:

- Hospice Personnel
- Nurses
- Social Workers
- Counselors
- Educators
- Psychologists
- Physicians
- Clergy, Chaplains and Lay Ministers

Topics Covered:

- Understanding the different ways men and women grieve
- Exploring the different patterns or styles of grief, including their distinct advantages and disadvantages
- Learning how cultural factors impact disenfranchised grief
- Uncovering the contexts and causes of disenfranchised grief as well as resulting complications
- Developing proven, practical interventions that are effective on differing grief patterns and disenfranchised grief

Kenneth J. Doka, PhD is a professor of Gerontology at the graduate school of the College of New Rochelle and senior consultant to the Hospice Foundation of America. Dr. Doka has published more than 100 books and articles, appeared on CNN and Nightline and keynoted conferences throughout North America, Europe, Asia, Australia and New Zealand.

